

of South Australia.

At Amberst, Australia, the Rev. R. Stephens, formerly of Manorhamilton, county Leitrim, to Jane, youngest daughter of the late Mr. W. Stephens, of Tralee, county Kerry.

DEATHS.

On Saturday night, at his residence, Tontine Buildings, aged 70 years, Thomas Gabbett, Esq.—one of the most respected gentlemen of the city. He was possessed of the most amiable character, and esteemed highly by every one who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was an excellent indulgent landlord, and a kind friend. His remains were this day interred in the family vault at Caherconlish, attended by large cortege of sorrowing friends and relatives. The funeral was one of the largest seen for many years in that district. Among the carriages in the cortege were those of his brothers, Joseph and William Gabbett; Rev. J. Gabbett, Mr. Gabbett, Caherline; Mr. Gabbett, Strand House; Mr. Gabbett, Linfield; Mr. E. Gabbett, Archdeacon Maunsell, Messrs Peacocke, Bannatyne, Russells, Studderts, Maunsells, Vandeleurs, Gavins, O'Brien, R. O'Brien, Oak, Fitzgerald, Gelston, Hunt, Spaight, Barron, Hare, Wilkins, Bourchier, Rev. Mathew Moore, and the parish priest of Caherconlish, with several others. The funeral was conducted by Mr. Owens in his usual satisfactory manner.

On Sunday, the 12th inst. at Clonderalaw house, George Studdert, Esq. JP.

At his lodgings, in Henry-street, on the 19th inst. after a few days illness, Michael Smithwick, of Mount Catherine, in the county Limerick, Esq.
