

and that he will (D.V.)
 on the 3rd December.
 in Belfast on Sunday by the honor, Priests' orders were con-James R. Ffolliott. The R-v.
 for curacy of Larne (Inver).
 Nash, A.B., for curacy of Wm. D. Nash, curacy of Kilcousins, curacy of Donaghadee
 S. curacy of Portaferry (Bally-

son of the late Bishop of Meath, interesting work on the liturgy of on Sunday last in the Dominican and for erecting St. John's new

 ral. The Right Rev. Dr. Ryan an interesting discourse.

Killofin and Kilmurry have pre-ev. Thomas Hill, with a purse a horse, having his horse lost by as well as Catholics, kindly join-and, upon the rev gentleman se, he met George A. Dartnell, house, who, with his usual kind present of a valuable six year old Mr. Hill. Such acts of kindness men are well worthy of record; any kind acts experienced by the l's neighbourhood, loved by all gentlemen and an impartial ma-so far improved in health that ne this day.

 said begs to acknowledge the ten pounds from the good and
 e. accompanied by a most kind also, a donation of the same nificant amount from the Right al, her Majesty's Attorney.
 The Archdeacon thinks it but tenants on Mr. Fitzgerald's ighbourhood are loud in praise of lity as a landlord; it is need-the merits of the Earls of Clare than sixty years, these merits d by all.

parliament are to meet in Dub-mber, to promote the policy Archbishops in their recent pas-sympathy with the Pope are to ney and Waterford.

Black Union.

dians, at its Meeting on Wed-December, prox., will receive

OFF FOUR ROOMS,
 as will be shown on applicathe Master of the workhouse the materials.
 red by me up to 11 o'Clock on
 of the Board of Guardians.
NAISH, Clerk of Union.
 1859.

Esq., of London, to Martha, daughter of the late Rev James Wilson, Rector of Clonsilla, county Tyrone.

DEATHS.

At 42, Cullenswood-avenue, Dublin, at an advanced age
 Jane, relict of Mountford Westropp, Esq., Mellon House, Kildimo, county of Limerick. She departed this life saying "Christ can do everything; I am sure of heaven"
 On Friday night, after giving birth to a daughter, Jane, wife of Henry Vereker, Esq., late of this city, and daughter of Richard J Stackpoole, Esq., of Edenvale, county Clare. Her remains were interred at Harold's Cross, near Dublin, on Monday

At Brown's Mountain House, Peter Walsh, Esq., solicitor, formerly agent to the late Earl of Beborough and son of the late Philip Walsh, Esq., of this city, stamp distributor.

22nd Nov., at the residence of her brother-in-law, William Pidgeon Esq., JP, Riversdale, co. Dublin. Rebecca, youngest daughter of Robert Smithwick, Esq., of Garter Lodge, Keswick, and grand-daughter of the late Robert Smithwick, Esq., of this county, deservedly and deeply lamented by all who knew her worth.

In Wickham-street, Mr John Quin, grocer.
 In Denmark-street, Mr John Oren, master tailor.

At Mitchelstown, Mary Anne Buck, daughter of the late Jonathan Buck, Esq.

At Cook-street Cork, Mary, daughter of the late John Walsh, Esq. of Killathy, county cork.

Major Alcock, of Richmond House, Cappoquin, county of Waterford.

At the Royal George Hotel, Kinsale, Mrs Anne Fove.

At Rathmullen House, county Meath, Thomas Kelly, Esq., solicitor, Town Clerk of the Drogheda Corporation.

At Heytesbury-terrace Dublin, Letitia Syngé Brady, daughter of the late Francis T Brady, Esq., and sister of the Right Hon the Lord Chancellor.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Mary Anne, relict of William O'Brien Lardner, Esq., solicitor, and mother of Mr Dionysius Lardner.

At Castlecomer, Edmund, son of the late Major Power, 28th Regiment.

At Killiney, Wm Dowling, Esq., Senior Lieutenant of the King's County Militia.

At Johnville, Dublin, William Allen, Esq., for many years
 Recorder of Sligo

At Shiroone, King's County, G Atkinson, Esq., JP.

Mr John Ward, of Fishamble-street, Dublin

At New Jersey, U.S., George Freedom, son of Thomas Hyde, Esq., solicitor, Ballinasloe.

Suddenly, James Dillon, Esq., for many years senior Coroner for the King's County.

At Charlemont-street Dublin, Mrs Louisa Atkinson, daughter of the late Joseph Mathews, Esq., of her Majesty's Exchequer, Ireland.

At Connaught-place, the youngest daughter of Lord and Lady Mathuen.

At Carne House, Dora, relict of Wm Harvey, of Kyle, Esq.

At College-green, Mr Wm Hayes.

At North Frederick-street, Dublin, the infant son of B Willis Richardson, Esq.

At North Earl-street, Dublin, Frances, wife of Mr Henry Horsbach.

At Upper Gardiner-street, Dublin, Miss Ellen Murphy.

John M Keon, Esq., Carrickmacross.

John, son of Mr Thomas Geraghty, Clonard, county Meath.

Owen O'Reilly, Esq., of Killoagher, near Cootshill.

At Capel-street, Dublin, Miss Oella Malloy.

James A Lawrie, Esq Professor of Surgery in the University of Glasgow.

At Bath, the Hon Mrs Henry Howard, widow of the Hon
 Captain H T Howard.

At Salisbury, Lady Williams widow of Sir R Williams, KCB.

In London, Elton, son of John J Butler, Esq., of Upper Gar-diner-street, Dublin

At Kilsowla, Ludford Harvey Daniel, Captain and Brevet
 Major 38th Regt

At Portishead, Somersetshire, Edward L Jones, Esq., Lieut
 Royal Navy

At Edinburgh, George Wilson, Esq., MD, Professor of Technology in the University of Edinburgh.

At Lower Craven-place, Kentistown, Henry Geo Holden, Esq., for nearly fifty years in the Rolls Chapel office, and late a first class Assistant-Keeper of the Public Records there.

At Benares, R Whigham, Captain 70th Regt.

At Newport, Rhode Island, America, Mr Hubert Wm Du-Lang, formerly of Dublin.

At Muzouria, India, Lieutenant William H Oliver, Bengal Engineers.

At the Ditch Union workhouse, Mrs Mary Moore, at the advanced age of 116 years.

view of Lough Derg, including the mountains of Clare and Gal-Tomgraney is a Post town, 3 miles from Limerick, and 7 fro Railway is in course of const which and Athlone steamers pl
 A right of Turbary is appurt a tenant may have the whole o land which he may cho-o.

The premises shall be sh
DANIEL DOWNES, Tomgraney.

The large Corn Store and pro
 the House and Land if desired.

Proposals &c., to be address
JOHN

November 19

Sheriff's

JOHN R. TI

Plaintiff

WILLIAM JA

Defendant

BY virtue of her Majesty
FACIAS, to us in this Considine, Esq., will on Fri
 December next, at 11 o'Clock Sell by Public Auction, at the near Mangret Chapel, the Chattels of the defendant, seize said Write, viz:—About two ac and mangolds, some hay, straw stock and implements, a large furniture, as also the defendant and land of Sluggara and Race

And at One o'Clock on ear
 House in the City of Limer
 1 horse, 1 ass, 1 tambling co some excellent furniture.

And J. A. V. Watson, Esq. day at 2 o'Clock at defendant street, in the City of Limerick chandler; together with the chop seized by me under one of said

Dated this 30th day of Nov

H. CONSID

M. H. D.

A. V. WAT

M. H. D.

E. S. Be

To me at S

November 30, 1859.

Limerick U

THE Board of Guardians at ready, the 7th of Decembe Tenders to supply

Turf, Culm, and Ma in such quantities as will be r that date to the 29th September

Tenders will be received by m the 7th prox.

By order of the Board
CARROL NAIS

30th Nov. 59